Women's College Club To Mark Anniversary

The month of February marks the 50th Anniversary of the Women's College Club of Princeton. Two events have been planned to celebrate this Golden Anniversary.

On Feb. 7 at noon the Club's three charter members, Mrs. George Beggs, Mrs. Irving Mershon and Miss Marguerite McClenaghan, will be the honored guests at a luncheon in the Prince William Room of the Nassau Inn.

A skit dramatizing the history of the Club will be presented by a committee headed by Mrs. John Howard and Mrs. Edward Morehouse and consisting of the following members: Mrs. Walton Van Winkle, Mrs. John Ahrens, Mrs. Leslie Vivian, Mrs. Forrest Greswold, Mrs. John de Groot, Mrs. Orrin Wenzel, Mrs. Frank Reiche, Mrs. Frank Gorman Jr., Mrs. John Brinster, Mrs. Peter Holnback, Mrs. Robert Plumb, Mrs. James Stretch and Mrs. David Thomas.

Club memorabilia will be on display and a printed history will be distributed.

Reservations for the luncheon will be accepted until Monday, Jan. 31 by Mrs. C. Richard Whelan.

The second event will be a meeting on Feb. 17 at 8:30 p.m. in Pierce Hall, Trinity Church. Dr. Mary Bunting, president of Radcliffe College will speak.

To commemorate its Golden Anniversary, the Club will present, in June, the 50th Anniversary Scholarship Merit Award of $500. It will be given, along with the other four scholarships, to a girl graduate of the Princeton secondary schools; the high school, Country Day School. This will increase scholarship aid from the $1,300 given annually to $1,800 this year.

The Women's College Club, the second oldest women's club in Princeton, has grown from its 80 charter members in 1916 to a total membership in 1966 in excess of 400. The Club has dedicated itself during its 50 years to encouraging high scholarship in the Princeton schools; to stimulating the intellectual interests of college women, and to fostering friendly fellowship among its members.
